THINKERS 50

EFOSA OJOMO

| Affiliation: Institute for D | | | |
|------------------------------|--------------|--------------|------|
| | Affiliation: | Institute fo | or D |

Leads the Global Prosperity research group at the Clayton Christensen Institute for Disruptive Innovation; and the Global Prosperity Group and Forum for Growth at Harvard Business School.

Ideas:

Helping to figure out how entrepreneurs and innovators create inclusive economic prosperity. How can business tap into unrealized sources of growth and prosperity – all while making the world a better place.

Content:

Co-author The Prosperity Paradox: How Innovation Can Lift Nations

Out of Poverty (HarperBusiness, 2019). Ojomo's TED talk, 'Reducing million views and has been translated into 13 languages.

Corruption Takes a Specific Kind of Investment'' has more than 1.4

Bio:

Graduated from Vanderbilt University with a degree in computer engineering and has an MBA from HBS.

Verdict:

"Champion of inclusive prosperity." Thinkers 50

প্রি Website:

efosaojomo.com

∞ Social:

@efosaojomo